PERSONAL PROFILE

I am an MSc marketing student at Nottingham Trent University with a strong foundation in professional teamwork, leadership, and strategic thinking. Before pursuing an MSc in marketing, I gained hands-on industry experience at Tech Mahindra in India, where I developed valuable skills in supporting marketing and communication, problem-solving, and client-focused service delivery. Alongside this professional journey, I competed as a professional cricketer in India, which strengthened my discipline, resilience, and ability to perform under pressure. I bring a unique blend of corporate experience, academic marketing expertise, content creation and campaigns, and high-level sportsmanship, enabling me to approach challenges with creativity, commitment, and a strong work ethic.

SKILLS

- Marketing and Brand Support: Campaign planning support, basic campaign performance analysis, and consumer & trend insights from academic projects.
- Analysis and reporting: Identifying trends and analysing insights and preparing clear reports for stakeholders.
- Personal: Proactive, self-driven, and passionate about sport, fashion, and lifestyle.
- Digital & retail tools: Microsoft Excel (data cleaning, basic analysis), Canva (presentation and content design), PowerPoint (storytelling decks), Word, basic SQL, and data interpretation.
- Soft Skills: Communication, attention to detail, creativity, problem-solving, and stakeholder collaboration.
- Teamwork & leadership: 5+ years as a professional cricketer, collaborating with coaches and teammates.

EDUCATION

MSc in Marketing | Nottingham Trent University | UK

Expected – 2027

Applied principles of marketing, consumer behaviour, and marketing management to develop full marketing plans and international market entry strategies, including STP, positioning, channel selection, and KPIs for real and simulated brands.

Conducted primary and secondary research projects (surveys, focus groups, and data analysis) to generate customer insights on satisfaction, loyalty, and media habits, translating findings into practical recommendations for managers.

Developed strong written communication, critical thinking, and cultural awareness through in-depth study of the Hindi language and literature.

EXPERIENCE

Project Manager – Consultancy Experience Project | Client: Moyra UK Nottingham Trent University, Nottingham Business School

May 2026 – July 2026

A live client consultancy module delivering strategic marketing recommendations to Moyra UK, the exclusive UK distributor of Moyra Hungary nail art products, under academic supervision.

- Leading a five-person team as Project Manager, coordinating timelines and deliverables across two research strands to prepare a client presentation in July 2026.
- Leading the Social Media and Content Analysis research strand, with individual focus on social media and conversion to sales.
- Conducted a multi-tool digital audit of the client's website (Google PageSpeed Insights, SEO Site Checkup), consolidating findings into a structured issue log to inform recommendations.

Marketing Society Member | Nottingham Trent University, Nottingham, UK Oct 2025 - present

A student-led society at Nottingham Trent University that organises events, talks, and activities for students interested in marketing, media, and related careers.

- Helped plan and promote talks and workshops on marketing, media, and sports, increasing student engagement and attendance.
- Created social media posts and event descriptions tailored to student interests, ensuring clear messaging and strong calls to action.
- Contributed ideas for themes, speakers, and formats based on current marketing and sports trends.
- Supported on-the-day delivery (room setup, welcoming attendees, facilitating Q&A) to ensure events ran smoothly.

Marketing Support Intern | Tech Mahindra

Feb 2025 - Sep 2025

Tech Mahindra is a global IT services leader delivering technology-led solutions across industries, including digital marketing and client support projects.

- Responsibilities:
 - Analysed data and prepared clear reports and presentations to support client and internal decision-making.
 - Coordinated with cross-functional teams to gather requirements, track progress, and ensure timely task delivery.
 - Maintained accurate records and dashboards using Excel (and basic SQL), checking data quality and consistency.

- Achievements:

- Recognised by the team for delivering accurate reports to tight deadlines, helping stakeholders act quickly on insights.
- Took initiative to streamline a recurring reporting task, reducing preparation time and improving clarity for end users.

Professional Cricketer | Various Clubs | India

2018 - 2023

- Trained and competed at a professional level, following structured programs and performance targets.
 - Worked closely with coaches, support staff, and teammates to prepare match strategies and adapt tactics during games.
 - Developed strong resilience, discipline, and teamwork, performing under pressure in high-stakes fixtures.
